1. [redacted] Received a call from Mr. C. B. Morrison, former staff member to Senator Ellender. Morrison inquired whether we still plan to print the world map which Senator Ellender had asked us to do for him. He said the Senator's estate is interested in getting copies of such a map for use in an exhibit on the Senator's travels. After checking with [redacted] of Graphics, I told Morrison that we are still planning to print the map (expecially since it is of interest to our people in the Map Library) and that multiple copies would be available by the end of September and some could be given to Morrison for their purposes.

2. [redacted] In the absence of John Lehman, White House staff, I called Colonel Richard Kennedy, of Dr. Kissinger's staff, regarding the persistent request of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee for a copy of NIE-5. I said I understood that when we had told the Committee we did not have the authority to release this they had written to the White House and received a letter saying this was for CIA to decide. I said Lehman had promised to try to get David Young, author of the letter, to send us a copy but we had never received it and because of a likely confrontation with the Committee we would like to be clear on exactly what Young's letter said. Kennedy said he was not familiar with the situation. I pointed out that we wanted to know whether the White House really didn't care whether we released the estimate or not, or, if they wanted us to refuse, whether they would be willing to back us up, to the point of invoking executive privilege if necessary. Kennedy said he couldn't answer the question but realized we had a problem and that any decision would have to be coordinated not only with David Young but with John Dean. Kennedy said he would call Young on my behalf, but I told him not to bother that I would call him directly.
